By Willard Jones

JESS YOUNG'S reputation as a first class dry cleaner and clothes finisher may have suffered a setback the other day.

Among other chores connected with the cleaning business, Jess will inform you, are mending, sewing on buttons and repairing zippers. It was in this last department that his reputation may have suffered.

A fellow brought in a pair of trousers with a zipper front. Jess reached for his zipper lubricant, which is kept in a small tube and gave the zipper a swipe. Later that day, after the trousers had been delivered to the customer the cleaner noticed that he had inadvertently grabbed a tube of glue instead of the lubricant.

"Now, I'm worried about whether the man ever got his pants zipper open," sadly opines Jess.

HAMLIN'S HOSPITALITY was given another boost this week through a communication to The Herald from a couple from Gruver, who sustained injuries recently in an auto accident near Hamlin. The letter in part follows:

"My wife and I were involved in an auto collision in your city on November 21. We have never been treated nicer than we were by the people of Hamlin. Even though we were complete strangers and 300 miles from home, the friendliness of your people made our hardship seem easier to bear. Yours is what we call good old Southern hospitality."—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Browning, Star Route, Gruver, Texas.

B. V. NEWBERRY, acting president of the Hamlin Lions Club, Tuesday was joining in a yarn festival at the weekly luncheon meeting of the civic group.

Occasion that brought his story to mind were the big hunting claims being made by Preachers Ed Robb, Calvin Bailey and Austin Siburt and Willard Jones about their recent luck on a hunt on the Jones place. The hunters had mounted heads of deer to prove the preachers got deer, and Jones was displaying a huge pair of bull horns. The inference was that Jones' story of shooting the bull may have had more credence than the stories of the preachers.

Anyway, back to Newberry's yarn.

"There was a fellow over in Arkansas who, one day while dipping some lambs, accidentally spilled some dye in the vat. The lamb came out such a pretty color that a passerby wanted to buy it for a pet.

"The farmer's business grew tremendously, and he went to putting all colors of dye in the dip. It wasn't long before he came to be known as Arkansas' biggest lamb dyer."

FARM PEOPLE learn many valuable lessons of life from their proximity to nature and the soil. The following story, adapted from a recent column in The Tulsa Herald, is an example

A county farmer the other day was discussing his wheat crop which was harvested last month. He pointed out that the crop was one of the best he had ever raised. . . tall, luxuriant, full headed.

He added, however, that he was apprehensive about the crop until the day it was harvested because it had no roots. We asked the reason for this phenomenon. He said that it was due to the fact that the crop, since it was planted last August, had been subjected to a perfect growing season. Rains came at exactly the right time. There had been no blistering winds during March and April. As a result, the root system had not developed because rainless periods had not forced the roots to go deeper, seeking moisture.

Had high winds, perhaps accompanied by rain, struck just before harvest, the fine crop would have been flattened—there would have been no root system to help bolster the crop.

Dry periods often are blessings in disguise, causing the root system to go deeper in search of moisture. Then when an early summer gale develops, the strong, deep roots may help the crop to survive.

It is better for a stalk of wheat to have the deep root system and never need the rain than it and

Cotton Allotments Due Farmers Soon

Cotton growers of the Hamlin area and the rest of Texas will receive official notice of their 1959 farm acreage allotments for cotton within the next few days, it was announced this week in a release to The Herald from the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

Cotton acreage allotments for all farms have been determined by the county ASC committees in accordance with the law and the regulations issued by the secretary of agriculture.

In 1959 two allotments for upland cotton will be established for each farm, and if marketing quotas are in effect each farm operator will have an opportunity to choose the one he wants to comply with and to register his choice at the county ASC office. If he elects the "regular" Choice A allotment and complies with it, he will be eligible for price support at the full level available—not less than 80 per cent of parity for 1959.

If he elects the Choice B allotment (which is 40 per cent larger than the Choice A allotment) and

Two Completions, One Wildcat and Two Pluggings Highlight Oil Picture

Two completions, staking of a wildcat and plugging of two other wells in the Hamlin area constituted highlights of the oil activity during the past several days.

Cities Service Oil Company's No. 1-121 Flat Top, project eight miles northeast of Hamlin in the S. L. C. (Tennchill) Field, was completed as a producer. It is in Section 121, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey. Daily potential was 80 barrels of 36-gravity oil, pumping from perforations at 2,435-41 feet. Total depth was 2,480 feet, with hole plugged back to 2,467 feet.

Burleson Declares Nation Will Face Greater Deficit

Government spending will continue at a high rate for months to come in order to meet the requests and needs for more governmental assistance from all sections of the country, declared Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson, when he spoke at a joint meeting of the Hamlin Rotary and Lions Clubs last Wednesday noon at the oil mill guest house.

"We will face a $12,000,000,000 deficit at the end of 1959," Burleson said after outlining some of the many expenditures facing the nation. "The U. S. government must act realistically and understandingly in the problems that face the nation. The government cannot look the other way."

Burleson, home during recess of the national Congress, was presented by Tate Bank, Hamlin banker, who also introduced Representative-elect Leon Thurman of Anson and Representative-elect Max Carriker of Roby.

Master-of-ceremonies for the joint meeting of the civic clubs was John V. Howard Jr., Rotary Club president.

B. V. Newberry, acting Lions Club president, introduced visiting Lions and Rotarians.

DAY'S WORK OF ESTEEM for a recently deceased fellow employee was given last Thursday (Thanksgiving Day) by nearly 100 employees of the Celotex Corporation plant at Hamlin. The men spent most of the holiday building the foundation for a home for Mrs. W. H. Hallmark Jr., whose husband died three weeks ago of a heart attack. The house was to be moved this week to the foundation in Southwest Hamlin from the Celotex Village. Part of the workmen on the all-day job are shown above as they took a coffee break in the brisk fall weather. Scores of others were working on the foundation at the time.

Theft of Tires Tuesday Night Also Reported

No definite leads had been uncovered Wednesday afternoon in the four burglaries that had been perpetrated in Hamlin on Sunday and Tuesday nights, according to Chief of Police E. B. (Buddy) Watson. Investigations were continuing.

Crow Brothers Grocery store was burglarized Sunday night sometime, and $80 in cash and an undetermined amount of merchandise was taken, according to Everett Crow, one of the owners. Included in the merchandise taken were cigarettes, some shotgun and 22-rifle shells and probably some foods, which are difficult to check, the store owners explain.

The burglary was discovered early Monday morning by Everett Crow when he opened the store. Watson was called, and later in the day Jones County Sheriff Dave Reves joined in the investigation. No fingerprints or other clues could be found, as the burglar or burglars used rubber gloves taken in the store.

The Crows and officers theorized that the burglars hid in the store shortly before it was closed Sunday afternoon, since no evidence of forcible entry was found. The iron bar on the back door apparently was removed from the inside and exit was made through the rear door.

Both the cash registers at the checking stands in the front of the store were rifled and the cash, mostly silver, was taken from them.

Tuesday night cars wheels and tires were taken from vehicles at three business places.

Four tires and wheels were taken from an implement trailer at Teague Implement Company. Two wheels and tires were taken from a car on the used car lot at Carl Murrell Chevrolet Company, and a wheel and tire were removed from a car parked at Home's Helms' garage.

No trace of the perpetrators of the tire and wheel burglaries have been found by investigating officers.

Cotton Growers To Vote Dec. 15 On Referendum

A change in the trend of thinking by farmers of the Hamlin territory and elsewhere over the Cotton Belt is expected to be reflected in the forthcoming balloting on the cotton marketing quota referendum.

How farmers vote in the cotton marketing quota referendum, to be held throughout the nation's cotton growing area on December 15 will determine whether quota penalties will apply, the kind of allotment program in effect, and also the level of price support for 1959 crop cotton. The referendum therefore is of vital concern to every cotton grower, says Searcy M. Ferguson, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The marketing quota program will be in operation for next year's crop, the chairman explains, if at least two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the program. In that case, farm operators will have an opportunity to elect a choice between (A) complying with their "regular" farm allotments—with price support available at not less than 80 per cent of parity for the 1959 crop of upland cotton; or (B) complying with an increased farm allotment 40 per cent larger than the "regular" farm allotment—with support at a level 15 per cent of parity lower than under the first choice; quota penalties will apply to any cotton produced in excess of the chosen allotment.

If more than one-third of the votes are against quotas, there would be no quota penalties, only the "regular" allotments would be available, and the price support level to eligible growers would drop to 50 per cent of parity.

All farmers who were engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 will be eligible to vote

BOOKS REMAIN BEST SOURCE OF KNOWLEDGE

Books from early times have been the source of really thorough knowledge, and this is still true today. And despite the craze of television—and the soap operas which fill the viewer's TV day—books are today still the safest, surest way to knowledge.

A survey not too long ago showed that people in various sections of the country spend a varying degree of their time reading books. The people of the South, for example, spent less of their time reading books than did the people of any other section.

Some attribute this to the warmer climate and the tendency of people to get outdoors in the milder climate and "do" more than read. But whatever the reasons, and regardless of the compensations, the South suffers when its citizens do not read books, as does any other section of a country, or any people.

Another depressing thought for the intellectual is the type of book most people read. It should not surprise anyone, for it is the same type of thing that the average movie-goer pays to see. It is something heavily smeared with sex, evil or scandal.

All of us should read more good books. It would be a good habit to form the routine of reading one good book a month, or a week—or however often your daily life allows. In a short time, the reading of these interesting, educational and fascinating books will pay great dividends.

Living Social Success

All of us talk a lot about "justice," and more often than not we fail to think about social justice. When it comes to the courts, governmental regulation, etc., we have a pretty keen sense of what we think justice is—or should be.

In our society, especially among many of the fairer sex, social justice is often only a theoretical thing. Family tradition, while fine in its way, should not disenfranchise anyone who happens to be forced to stand on his or her own merits—with no family connection to fall back on.

Sororities and fraternities at so many of our colleges are often guilty of forgetting the real meaning of social justice.

Perhaps one of life's greatest temptations is the temptation to be envious or jealous of others—especially if they gain more success, real or apparent—than you do. All of us at times realize this frustrating sensation.

Often it causes us, if we are in a position to inflict a "counter blow" socially, to attempt to pull the object of our envy down to our own level. And this, whether it be through mobbery, gossip or other mischief, inevitably harms the doer, not the receiver. For social justice, like other forms of justice, is a great Christian concept, like political democracy.

More of us who believe in it in theory should practice it in our daily lives.

Leave School Fund Alone

A strong stand against tampering with the permanent school fund was taken by the Texas State Board of Education in a resolution adopted last month. The board may enlarge on its stand at a later meeting, in keeping with the July declaration.

The resolution recommends as follows, but to no one in particular:

"That the permanent school fund be maintained inviolate, based upon the fundamental endowment concept under which it was established and has since been maintained, to the end that present and future generations may have the benefit of the income therefrom in meeting the financial needs of the public schools of Texas."

The resolution requested: (1) That no attempt be made to place a maximum limit on the size of the fund; (2) that no part of the principal be diverted or in any manner expended; and (3) that the fund continued to be administered as a trust fund and invested in a manner consistent with safe and sound investment practices.

The board pointed out that Texas' traditional wealth of minerals, oil and gas would be depleted eventually and that this should be taken into consideration.

The extent to which a person can be trusted usually is in inverse ratio to the bragging he does about himself.

Money Can't Buy All

The late George Horace Lorimer, for many years editor of The Saturday Evening Post, once wrote these words: "It is a good thing to have money, and the things that money can buy, but it is good, too, to check up once in awhile and make sure we haven't lost the things that money can't buy."

The things that money cannot buy would make a long list. Here are some of them: Money cannot buy real friendship; friendship must be earned. Money cannot buy a clear conscience; square dealing is the price tag. Money cannot buy the glow of good health; right living is the secret. Money cannot buy happiness; happiness is a mental attitude and one may be as happy in a cottage as in a mansion.

Money cannot buy sunsets, singing birds, and the music of the wind in the trees; these are as free as the air we breathe. Money cannot buy inward peace; peace is the result of a constructive philosophy of life. Money cannot buy character.

Continue the list yourself. You will agree that among the things money cannot buy are some of the most valuable treasures life has to offer.

Checking the Facts

There's a story floating around about an election campaign in a backwoods area. It tells of a political meeting at which two candidates spoke lengthily on the subject of local taxes. One wanted to lower them. The other favored raising them.

When the third candidate arose to speak, he shifted his plug of tobacco from one side of his mouth to the other. "Folks," he drawled, "you jist go ahead and elect me. When I git on the job I kin tell better what to do. If taxes are too high, I'll lower 'em; if they're too low, I'll raise 'em."

Now, there is a man to admire—won't make a decision before he knows the facts!

And so it is with all of us in our every-day lives . . . or, so it should be. You can't tell which way to go until you learn what the situation is.

The Frustration Absurdity

It is a mistake to attribute all criminal instincts to frustration over social or economic status, but it is becoming quite a habit with social workers to explain the criminal acts of individuals upon the thesis that all crime originates from some inequality in the social order. This obviously leads us to the conclusion, if some sociologists are correct, that the way to abolish crime is to give everybody what they want. Make everybody equal, in social, political and economic status.

This is an absurd thesis. There are criminals in all levels of human society. Excepting certain instances of stealing, connected with the potential status of underprivileged, the bulk of the criminals acts in this country are committed by those who are unwilling to accept the discipline of an orderly society, and reluctant to work for what they get.

Ladies' Night for Lions Club Reset During January

Semi-annual ladies' night of the Hamlin Lions Club, which had been set several months ago for next Tuesday evening, has been postponed until some time in January, it was announced at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the club at the oil mill guest house. Acting President B. V. Newberry said that so many conflicts made the change feasible.

Program for the day was provided by J. D. Barnes, Hamlin theater manager, who recently returned from a three-week trip through the Southwest to California. He showed colored slides and told of visits to Carlsbad Caverns, Arizona, Nevada, and to Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and various movie sites in California.

A display of mounted trophies of Preachers Austin Siburt, Calvin Bailey and Ed Robb and Publisher-Rancher Willard Jones was erected in the meeting hall to prove their hunting abilities on a recent trip to the Jones ranch. Varying opinions about the hunt seemed to remain in the minds of Doubting Thomases, declared the Lions Club president.

Cotton Growers to Get Allotments of Acreage Shortly

Official allotment notice to the county ASC office so that it can be sent to the person who will operate the farm next year. Cotton allotments are established for specific farms and may not be transferred by the operator or other producer from one farm to another.

Any changes in the land to be included in the farm for which the allotment is made should be reported to the county ASC committee. Farm operators likewise are asked to check with the county ASC office regarding any other question about the farm on which the allotment is established.

Ferguson also reminds cotton growers that all should vote in the December 15 marketing quota referendum. Polling places will be announced in each county very soon, he said.

Carol Hennington Becomes Bride of Robert Carlisle in McCaulley Rituals

Carol Marie Hennington and Robert Newport Carlisle repeated wedding vows in a double ring ceremony last Thursday evening at the McCaulley Baptist Church. Officiating for the rites was Rev. Gene Y. Brock, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray B. Hennington of McCaulley. Rev. and Mrs. Robert Lee Carlisle of Montevideo, Uruguay, are parents of the bridegroom.

Betty Carlisle, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor and best man was David Henning.

Reception in Rector Home Given After McCaulley Wedding

Immediately following the Hennington-Carlisle wedding Thursday evening at McCaulley, a reception for attendants was held in the home of Mrs. Aile Rector. Members of the house party included the bride's parents, Miss Carlisle Ruby Hennington, Mrs. A. M. Martin, Mrs. O. T. Hennington and Mrs. David Hennington of Sweetwater, and Mrs. Billy Henderson, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Fayne Downey and Jane Decker.

The bride's chosen colors of "ivory" and white were used, and the table was laid with an Irish linen cloth of lace. Appointments were of crystal and silver.

For traveling the bride wore a dress of sapphire blue in a semi-chemise design with harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was from her bouquet. They took a brief honeymoon trip.

The newlyweds are at home at 2757 1/2 Pine Street in Abilene where both are junior students at Hardin Simmons University.

ton of Sweetwater, brother of the bride. Gordon Ivey of Clyde and Leroy Morgan of Wichita Falls were ushers. Candle-lighter was Mrs. Janice Farmer, who also sang the traditional wedding songs.

Baskets of white gladiolus, blue tapers in base candelabra and palms provided the setting for the rituals in the church.

Traditional music was presented by Mrs. Ed Harris, organist, of Rotan, who also accompanied Mrs. Farmer, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess style gown of white satin with empire waist and long sleeves of lace. The low neckline was caloped. The same lace formed a deep drap at the hemline. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a lace wedding bonnet. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus with blue and white pom-pom mums in shower arrangement.

Gown of the maid-of-honor was of ice blue taffeta, designed like that worn by the bride. She carried a small cascade arrangement of white carnations and blue pom-pom mums.

TIME MARCHES ON.

The woman was filling out a blank form in order to open a checking account. When she came to the space labeled "age" she hesitated.

The clerk waited patiently, then leaned over and whispered, "The longer you wait the worse it gets."

ATHLETIC PROWESS.

"Well, last week he went out seven nights running."

Student from Hamlin Takes Part in Teacher Training Programs

Public schools in 30 Texas cities are cooperating with North Texas State College at Denton this year in the training of prospective teachers.

The school of education has placed 473 college students in these cities as student teachers. Most of them are assigned to schools in Denton, Dallas and Tarrant Counties.

In 21 towns outside of Denton County the student teachers spend full time in the school for nine weeks. In most Denton County schools they teach a one-half day schedule for a full semester.

Under the guidance of the classroom teacher the students assist in planning and carrying out the regular instruction program as part of their work toward earning teaching certificates.

Among those enrolled in the program is Peggy Briscoe Hallmark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Briscoe of Hamlin. She is teaching business at the Carrollton High School.

Future Homemakers Stage Tacky Party At Boy Scout Cabin

Members of the Hamlin High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America met last Tuesday at the Boy Scout cabin near the West Lake. The meeting was in the form of a tacky party.

The girls roasted hot dogs over an indoor "pot belly" stove and ate them with beans and chili. After they ate, games were played, and in conclusion a prize was presented to the tackiest. The winner of the prize was Leona Bringer, freshman member of the chapter. Leona had on huge overalls with a shirt, a pair of men's shoes and a straw hat. Her make-up was amply applied, and she penciled in freckles on her face. Runners-up for the prize were Dixie Daniels and Sandra Smith.

Hamlin, Texas

Pioneer Area Rancher, W. L. Walton, Spends Thanksgiving Telling Yarns

W. L. Walton, one of the most loved and honored former citizens of Hamlin, has spent the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of his son, Wallace V. Walton.

Mr. Walton is truly a pioneer of West Texas. He was prominent in the ranching business in the early days. He has had extensive holdings in both Jones and Stonewall Counties, and was active in farming and ranching until a few years ago, when he retired, and is now making his home at Lubbock.

He was born at Blue Springs, Missouri on January 1, 1869, and moved with his family in a covered wagon to this section of Texas in 1885. The family settled on a section that is directly north of the Katy Railway in North Hamlin.

His stories of the Old West never fail to fascinate those who hear them. He worked on the once famous Hitson Ranch, known as "Old Hit." The ranch was located in the present Hitson community, west of Hamlin. At that time it took several days to make a round trip to Abilene for lumber and supplies. They received mail only once each week.

Later, after Hamlin was put on the map in 1905, Mr. Walton moved into town and built a modern home near the present Elementary School so that his children might have the opportunities of a good school. He has always been interested in the advancement of the community.

In 1907 he became part owner of the telephone line from Sager-ton to Sweetwater by way of Hamlin, and did most of the work of building the line, using wagons and teams. The present telephone route is the same. He later sold his interest to Judge Shannon, an early day lawyer in Hamlin.

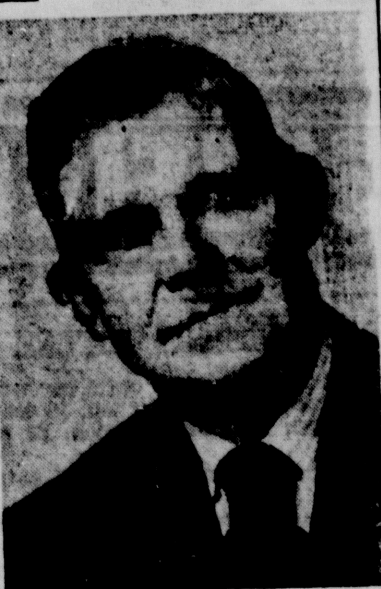

Mr. Walton was a charter member of the First Presbyterian Church in Hamlin. He was always loyal in attendance and stewardship. The church was destroyed many years ago by a storm and was never rebuilt. He then attended the First Baptist Church, of which his wife, the late Mrs. Walton, was a member.

The pioneer, truly a gentleman of sterling qualities, generous, understanding, has kept a keen interest in life, and his one desire seems to be that others might have the advantages that his generation did not have. He is still young in heart and spirit.

His children, Willie Belle Walton of Lubbock, Mrs. Geraldine Stahl of Levelland, Mrs. Anne Etta Matchett of Hamlin, John Walton of Lubbock, Wallace Walton of Hamlin; his grandchildren and great-grandchildren are his pride and joy, and next to them are his yard and vegetable garden which is neatly kept. He planted, cultivated and dug about 15 bushels of sweet potatoes from his garden this year.

It is men like he, who have suffered the hardships, improved the land, built the churches and schools, built the roads that the present generation may have a better way of life. It is men like this who have made America great.

Those who enjoyed Thanksgiving in the home of the Wallace Waltons were W. L. Walton, Willie Belle Walton, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Walton, Joye Ann Walton, and Stan Walton of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Riley Matchett and Nettie Pown of Hamlin.

R. B. Bryant Speaks At Layman's Service At Faith Methodist

R. B. Bryant of Stamford filled the pulpit at the Faith Methodist Church Sunday as the church observed Laymen's Day. His topic was "Seek ye first the kingdom of God."

Among other things, the speaker said: "Fear is man's trouble; he's always afraid he can't do. Always call on God to lead in every effort. Go out and present Christ as laymen should. Make a commitment to God and rejoice because you have been blessed by Him."

"Putting first things first, you'll have the spirit of Christ. The quality of your life means more than a sermon."

"Dr. George W. Truett in 1917 delivered an inspirational address and said, 'There is something good about everybody if you know them well enough.' We are too critical; we must never gossip. What is the biggest sin? Saying untrue things about your neighbor."

"If you are old and have only a few years left, God can still use you. An humble person, a good old grandmother, can pray for her sons and grandsons."

Students Studying Income Tax May Be Able to Save on Bill

During the past few weeks thousands of boys and girls again took up the battle with books here in Texas. So many learned men have come up with so many good ideas about what the boys and girls should learn in this era of space travel and rock 'n' roll and sputniks that it is sort of dangerous to even mention the word education.

However, it's pretty safe to predict that the thousands of high school and college students who study the income tax course will get a chance to use what they have learned. The sputniks may keep on rockin' n' rollin' or they may get sacked, but unfortunately, not only this generation but the next one will be working on this tax business, observes Tax Man Sam.

Maybe Junior can learn enough to prepare correct tax returns and pay no more than his proper tax.

Eight Schools Enter Teams In Hamlin Cage Tournament

Stamford Blasts Cisco 46 to 14 to Hit Quarter-Final

Stamford High School's Bulldog football team, winner of the District 6-AA championship, continued their winning ways Saturday afternoon at Abilene by beating the Cisco Lobos 46 to 14 to reach the state Class AA quarter-finals.

After playing on even terms for the first quarter, the Bulldogs got away two touchdowns in the second period to start things off in fine style. Long touchdown runs were the order of the day as Stamford snapped Cisco's victory string at 11 straight.

Stamford made 20 first downs to 12 for the Lobos, and rolled up 394 yards rushing to 179 for the Cisco crew. Cisco made 30 yards on three passes out of 10 tosses, and the Bulldogs connected with two of five aerials for a like 33 yards.

A ninth grader "floored" the telephone folks recently with this portion of an essay entered in a contest. The youngster wrote: "The telephone is very necessary in cases of emergency. For example, if your house is on fire, you can use the telephone to call the insurance company."

The eighth grade Hamlin girls trimmed the sissies from Rotan by a 24 to 4 count.

Hawley Cagers Win Two Tilts from Hamlin

Hamlin High School cagers went to Hawley last Tuesday night for three encounters. The A strings of boys and girls both lost their tilts, but the B basketballers finally eked out a win after two overtimes.

The Hawley boys trimmed the A squad 67 to 32 with Jim Wornack dropping 36 points through the hoop for Hawley. Charles Robinson scored 12 points for Hamlin.

Judy Beasley made 28 points for the Hawley girls as they took the game 45 to 35. Kay Millhorn sank 17 points for the Piperettes.

In the B game the Pied Pipers took the long end of a 44 to 43 score after two overtimes.

Stamford Meets Spur In AA Quarter-Finals

Stamford High School Bulldogs, District 6-AA champions, will play the Spur Bulldogs Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Texas Class AA quarter-finals.

Roland Kelley, president of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce flipped the coin and Superintendent Bob Nunley of Spur called it wrong in locating the site of the game.

Stamford defeated Cisco 46 to 14 last Saturday, and Spur defeated Abilene 32 to 8 to gain the quarter-finals.

Several Hamlin grid fans are expected to see the Friday game.

Play Begins This Afternoon, Runs Thru Saturday

Eight schools of the area have entered high school boys' and girls' teams in the Hamlin High School invitation basketball tournament scheduled Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the new HHS gymnasium. It is announced this week by Coach Neil Laminack who completed the pairings of teams first of the week.

This is the first high school basketball tournament to be conducted at Hamlin for several years, points out Laminack, as he urges good attendance from the Hamlin fans at the tourney.

Play will get underway Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and finals will be Saturday evening.

Trophies will be presented to the winning boys' and girls' teams, and individual trophies will be given to the boys and girls selected for the all-tournament teams.

Pairings in the two brackets of play, as announced by Laminack first of the week, follow:

Boys' Division—Roby vs. Hamlin at 3:30 Thursday; Aspermont vs. Rotan at 6:00; Avoca vs. Albany at 6:45 Friday; Jayton vs. Haskell at 8:00 p. m.; winner of Hamlin-Roby tilt vs. Aspermont-Rotan winner at 9:00 a. m. Stamford Dominates All-District 6-AA Team as Hamlin Places One on Squad

Stamford's rampaging Bulldog football team landed three backfield berths and placed one man at each position in the line to practically dominate the District 6-AA all-district mythical team picked by coaches of the five member schools in tabulations made last week-end at Hamlin.

The district champion Bulldogs

placed seven men on the first team and three on the second. Haskell landed four spots on the first team, Anson and Hamlin got one each, and Seymour failed to put a man on the mythical group but had two on the second team.

Thirteen players were selected on the first team due to ties at end and guard. Eight of the players are seniors and five are juniors. No sophomores were selected on either team.

The first and second teams as picked by the coaches follow:

First Team—John Rike of Haskell, Ronnie Weeks of Stamford and Delbert Wilson of Anson, ends; Jimmy Payne of Stamford and Tom Cathey of Haskell, tackles; Bobby Gamblin of Stamford, Bob Martin of Hamlin and Gary Anthony of Haskell, guards; Wendell Robinson of Stamford, center; Donald Davis of Stamford, Charlie Hunter of Stamford, Fred Upshaw of Stamford and Tom Anderson of Haskell, backs.

Second Team—Duane Lindsey of Stamford and Jerry Underwood of Seymour, ends; Roy Williams of Hamlin and Larry Dippel of Stamford, tackles; Joe Holloway of Anson and Steve Carmichael of Hamlin, guards; Larry Cooper of Haskell, center; Ken Prewitt of Hamlin, Joe Chandler of Seymour, Tab Bunkley of Stamford and Eugene Mullins of Haskell, backs.

Junior High Cagers Play Rotan Monday

Next Monday night the Junior High School's basketball crews will host the cagers from Rotan at the local gymnasium.

Beginning at 6:00 o'clock the seventh grade boys will play. At 7:00 o'clock the eighth grade girls will take the courts, and at 8:00 o'clock the eighth grade boys will tangle with the Rotan eighth graders.

Junior High Girls Win. Boys Lose to Avoca

Eighth grade boys' and girls' basketball teams from Hamlin Junior High School went to Avoca Monday night for two basketball games.

The girls won their game by a 26 to 23 score, but the boys were snowed under a barrage of goals by a 31 to 4 count.

High point scorer for the girls of Hamlin was Arline Waldon, who bucketed eight points. Sandra Jayroe made seven points, and Billy Blankinship and Lagena Weaver each tallied five points.

In the boys' tilt, it started off like a real match. Score at the end of the first quarter was 2 to 2, and at half-time was 6 to 2. Then the Avoca crew hit their stride as the Hamlin first string was pulled and rolled up the big score. Scoring for Hamlin were Mike Martin and Dan Newberry.

More Than 700 Entries Indicated for County Club Boys' Show on January 10

More than 700 entries for the Jones County Club Boys' Show were indicated at the last week at Stamford. The show will be held this year at the quarterhorse track at the Texas Cowboy Regatta. Show date is January 10.

An effort will be made this year to speed up judging in the county with two competitions being held at the same time. In previous years judging has drawn out all late in the afternoon.

D. Tankaley of Texas A. & M. Baptists of Areas to Attend M Night Event at Stamford Monday

Members of Training Union members from the North Central Avenue and First Baptist Churches of Hamlin are scheduled to join several hundred other Baptists of the county for the annual M Night service at the First Baptist Church in Stamford Monday evening.

The M Night service this year will be in three separate sections to accommodate the crowds. The boys and girls will meet in the youth building for their program, and beginner and primary children will be in the basement of the church. The service of the church will be devoted to the others of intermediate and above, including all adults.

Dr. Otis Stricklin, president of Hamlin Baptist College, will be the speaker for the adult group and Rev. Miles B. Hays of Burketts, formerly of Hamlin, will speak to the juniors.

College will judge beef cattle and swine. Max Stuart of Roby, a rancher, will judge dairy cattle and sheep. Marvin Weber of Power Feeds in Abilene will be the poultry judge. Showmanship judge will be announced after the show.

The show is financed through contributions of the Chambers of Commerce at Stamford and Anson and the Hamlin Board of Community Development. The show alternates among the three cities. Individual awards are given by civic clubs, farmers and ranchers and business men.

According to tabulations made at the leaders' meeting Hawley will have 25 entries, Avoca 51, Lueders 106, Jones County 4-H Clubs 113, Hamlin 137, Anson 94 and Stamford 214. This is an increase of 200 over last year.

Among changes in this year's show are the following:

All dry lot milk fed calves will show in the same class. There will be no distinction in classes of milk fed or dry lot steers.

A new class of "commercial steers" has been set up. These will be separate and apart from the other classes of calves. Calves must have been purchased between August 10 and October 1, 1958. These steers will be graded by Jim Warden of Swift & Company.

In the pen of three fat hogs only one gilt may be exhibited. A weight limit between 160 and 250 pounds has been established for fat barrows.

Capons cannot be over 15 months old and must weigh a minimum of six pounds before they are eligible for the show.

Breeding swine will be shown by breeds, with Durocs and Hampshires in one group and Berkshires and others in the second group.

Breeding bees will be shown in three classes: Heifers under 18 months, heifers over 18 months, and cows.

There will be three classes of dairy animals: Under one year one to two years, and cows.

Broilers will be shown in pens of three. Capons will be in two classes—light and heavy.

There will be four classes of fat lambs and four classes of breeding sheep.

At last week's meeting were County Agent Kirby Clayton; Vocational Agriculture Teachers T. C. Blankinship of Hamlin, Jackie Richards of Lueders, Larry Dooley and J. H. Dozier of Anson, Wayne Forrest of Hawley, Gerald Proctor of Avoca, Ernest Tate of Noodle and Brad Rowland and Weldon Hailbrooks of Stamford.

Ralph Bailey Made Partner in Store Here

Ralph Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bailey, a few days ago became a member of the firm at Bailey's Department Store in Hamlin. It has been announced.

Young Bailey, who has been associated with a building concern at Odessa for several years, is a graduate of Hamlin High School. He married an Odessa girl, and they have moved to Hamlin to make their home.

Jones County Has Purchased 91% of Year's Bond Quota

During the month of October the citizens of Jones County purchased $49,532 in Series E and H savings bonds. This announcement was made recently by A. C. Humphrey of Stamford, chairman of Jones County savings bonds committee.

"Sales for the first 10 months of this year totaled $434,373," Chairman Humphrey reported. "We have now achieved 91.3 per cent of our 1958 goal of $476,000."

Sales in Texas during the first 10 months of 1958 were $146,136,258 which represents 83.5 per cent of the 1958 goal of $175,000,000.

"Under a recent change in treasury regulations, individuals who hold F and G bonds that mature after September 1, 1958, may invest the proceeds from the maturing bonds in E and H bonds without regard to annual purchase limits," Humphrey announced. "This information should be of interest to hundreds of people in this area who hold maturing F and G bonds," Humphrey concluded.

Sales by counties of the nine-county District 16 for the year and the percentage of the goal for the year follow:

County	Purchases for Yr.	% of Goal
Callahan	$ 206,790	98.9
Eastland	625,628	123.4

Football Banquet For Pied Pipers Is Elaborate Affair

Slacks, jeans and gingham vanished before the magic wand of pigskin and taffetas, nets and white coats and black ties appeared on the scene when the annual football banquet for boys and coaches of the Hamlin High School Pied Pipers were honored by the girl of the Pep Squad at the Hamlin Elementary School cafeteria last evening.

About 7:15 o'clock beautiful girls and handsome boys entered the banquet room, which was decoratively and attractively decorated. One of attraction was a presentation of the traditional school colors of green and white at the head table. Miniature football players furnished the other decorations.

Main speaker of the evening was Austin Siburt, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ. The theme of his talk was good sportsmanship, not only in the game of football but also in the game of life.

During the banquet the Pep Squad presented their Football Hero for this year, Roy Glen Williams, a trophy. The Piper foot-

Postmaster Perry Sparks is pleased with the prompt response to his recently announced "mail early for Christmas" campaign. He said this week, "The biggest single factor in getting all mail delivered before Christmas is the full cooperation of the public in early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts. Post office facilities have been expanded, personnel will be available, and everything is geared up to handle a record Christmas mail in Hamlin this year."

With Christmas only a month away, the postmaster says it's not a bit too soon to start following these simple rules to insure delivery of your gifts before Christmas: Wrap them securely, address them correctly and mail them early.

The postmaster said you should not take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use corrugated mailing cartons, plenty of heavy brown wrapping paper, and be sure that every package is tied with strong cord. Cartons containing several gift packages should be stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents.

The postmaster also reminds us that size and weight limitations for parcel post packages vary according to place of mailing and destination. He suggests that you secure Pamphlet No. 2 at the post office, which tells all about packaging and wrapping parcels. Always include an extra label with your return address and the recipient's address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.

"Careful addressing of your Christmas cards is equally important," the postmaster said. Bring your Christmas card mailing list up-to-date and be certain that you have the complete name, address, zone number, city and state for everyone on your list.

Always send your Christmas cards by first class mail. They will be processed and delivered quicker and they'll be returned or forwarded if necessary. Christmas cards sent by first class mail may carry written messages; whereas, cards sent with third class three-cent postage may only have a written signature.

Teen-Age Day to Be Observed Sunday at Church of Nazarene

Sunday, December 7, will be Teen-Age Day at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene, according to Rev. R. T. Jarrell, pastor. The entire day will be turned over to the teens of the church.

In the evening service the teen-agers will continue to be in charge of the special music. The message of the evening will be brought by Ray Smith, teen-age supervisor.

The pastor and his congregation invite the public to attend all the services Sunday.

JESS YOUNG'S reputation as a first class dry cleaner and clothes finisher may have suffered a setback the other day.

Among other chores connected with the cleaning business, Jess will inform you, are mending, sewing on buttons and repairing zippers. It was in this last department that his reputation may have suffered.

A fellow brought in a pair of trousers with a zipper front. Jess reached for his zipper lubricant, which is kept in a small tube, and gave the zipper a swipe. Later that day, after the trousers had been delivered to the customer, the cleaner noticed that he had inadvertently grabbed a tube of glue instead of the lubricant.

"Now, I'm worried about whether the man ever got his pants zippered open," sadly opines Jess.

HAMLIN'S HOSPITALITY was given another boost this week through a communication to The Herald from a couple from Gruver, who sustained injuries recently in an auto accident near Hamlin. The letter in part follows:

"My wife and I were involved in an auto collision in your city on November 21. We have never been treated nicer than we were by the people of Hamlin. Even though we were complete strangers and 300 miles from home, the friendliness of your people made our hardship seem easier to bear. Yours is what we call good old Southern hospitality."—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Browning, Star Route, Gruver, Texas.

B. V. NEWBERRY, acting president of the Hamlin Lions Club, Tuesday was joining in a yarn festival at the weekly luncheon meeting of the civic group.

Occasion that brought his story to mind were the big hunting claims being made by Preachers Ed Robb, Calvin Bailey and Austin Siburt and Willard Jones about their recent luck on a hunt on the Jones place. The hunters had mounted heads of deer to prove the preachers got deer, and Jones was displaying a huge pair of bull horns. The inference was that Jones' story of shooting the bull may have had more credence than the stories of the preachers.

Anyway, back to Newberry's yarn.

"There was a fellow over in Arkansas who, one day while dipping some lambs, accidentally spilled some dye in the vat. The lamb came out such a pretty color that a passerby wanted to buy one for a pet.

"The farmer's business grew tremendously, and he went to putting all colors of dye in the dip. It wasn't long before he came to be known as Arkansas' biggest lamb dyer."

FARM PEOPLE learn many valuable lessons of life from their proximity to nature and the soil. The following story, adapted from a recent column in The Tulsa Herald, is an example.

A county farmer the other day was discussing his wheat crop which was harvested last month. He pointed out that the crop was one of the best he had ever raised. . . tall, luxuriant, full headed.

He added, however, that he was apprehensive about the crop until the day it was harvested because it had no roots. We asked the reason for this phenomenon. He said that it was due to the fact that the crop, since it was planted last August, had been subjected to a perfect growing season. Rains came at exactly the right time. There had been no blistering winds during March and April. As a result, the root system had not developed because rainless periods had not forced the roots to go deeper, seeking moisture.

Had high winds, perhaps accompanied by rain, struck just before harvest, the fine crop would have been flattened—there would have been no root system to help bolster the crop.

Dry periods often are blessings in disguise, causing the root system to go deeper in search of moisture. Then when an early summer gale develops, the strong, deep roots may help the crop to survive.

It is better for a stalk of wheat to have the deep root system and never need it, than to need it and not have it.

ROYALTY OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON at Hamlin High School was recognized the other evening at the annual grid banquet given by girls of the Pep Squad for the Pied Piper football squad and the coaches. Named Football Hero was Roy Glen Williams (left) and Betty Maberry was recognized as Football Sweetheart. Appropriate awards were given at the annual banquet, held at the Primary School cafeteria.

Cotton Allotments Due Farmers Soon

Cotton growers of the Hamlin area and the rest of Texas will receive official notice of their 1959 farm acreage allotments for cotton within the next few days. It was announced this week in a release to The Herald from the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

Cotton acreage allotments for all farms have been determined by the county ASC committees in accordance with the law and the regulations issued by the secretary of agriculture.

In 1959 two allotments for upland cotton will be established for each farm, and if marketing quotas are in effect each farm operator will have an opportunity to choose the one he wants to comply with and to register his choice at the county ASC office. If he elects the "regular" Choice A allotment and complies with it, he will be eligible for price support at the full level available—not less than 80 per cent of parity for 1959.

If he elects the Choice B allotment (which is 40 per cent larger than the Choice A allotment) and complies with it, he will be eligible for price support at a lower level—75 per cent of parity less than under Choice A.

If marketing quotas are not in effect, only "regular" allotments will be available and price support will be at 50 per cent of parity, as directed by law.

Searcy M. Ferguson, chairman of the state ASC committee, explained that the national allotment and reserve of 16,310,000 acres available for distribution is first apportioned among states, and the state allotments among counties. The county allotments are then distributed among farms on which cotton was planted or regarded as planted in any one of the past three years, with a small acreage reserved for specified uses. The minimum farm allotment is the smaller of the farm's 1958 allotment or 10 acres.

Farmers who do not intend to operate a farm for which a 1959 cotton allotment is established should immediately return the

Two completions, staking of a wildcat and plugging of two other wells in the Hamlin area constituted highlights of the oil activity during the past several days.

Cities Service Oil Company's No. 1-21 Flat Top, project eight miles northeast of Hamlin in the S. L. C. (Tennichill) Field, was completed as a producer. It is in Section 121, B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey. Daily potential was 80 barrels of 36-gravity oil, pumping from perforations at 2,435-41 feet. Total depth was 2,480 feet, with hole plugged back to 2,467 feet.

Fox & Ransdell of Abilene completed their No. 3 Swenson Land & Cattle Company as a producer in the same area. It is in Section 121 B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey. Daily potential was 90 barrels of 38-gravity oil flowing through a 22-64 inch choke with 300 pounds pressure on casing and 100 on tubing. Flow was from seven perforations at 2,408-28 feet. Casing was set at 2,458 feet total depth. Gas-oil ratio was 450 to one.

Farmer & Hudspeth of Abilene has staked a Jones County wildcat location seven miles southeast of Hamlin. It is No. 1 E. T. Pittard, slated for 2,850 feet with rotary equipment. Site is 2,262 feet from the south and 1,649 feet from the east lines of Section 62 B. B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

Plugged at 3,350 feet was Patton Oil Producing Company of Rotan's No. 1-A Lena Eivens project two miles south of McCaulley in the McCaulley Field. It was in Section 51, Block 1 T. T. & B. Railway Company Survey.

McCaulley Couple Injured in Collision Of Cars in Abilene

Mrs. G. C. Adcock, 65-year-old McCaulley woman injured last Wednesday in an auto crash in Abilene, remained this week in the Hendrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene. She sustained a broken arm just above the elbow.

Her husband, 74, driver of the car in which the couple was injured, was treated for scratches and a head injury and released last Wednesday afternoon.

The Adcock car was in collision with one driven by Ronald Morris Griffin, 20, of Abilene. Both vehicles were estimated total losses by Police Officer Roy Brown, who investigated the accident.

Burleson Declares Nation Will Face Greater Deficit

Government spending will continue at a high rate for months to come in order to meet the requests and needs for more governmental assistance from all sections of the country, declared Congressman Omar Burleson of Anson, when he spoke at a joint meeting of the Hamlin Rotary and Lions Clubs last Wednesday noon at the oil mill guest house.

"We will face a $12,000,000,000 deficit at the end of 1959," Burleson said after outlining some of the many expenditures facing the nation. "The U. S. government must act realistically and understandingly in the problems that face the nation. The government cannot look the other way."

Burleson, home during recess of the national Congress, was presented by Tate Bank, Hamlin banker, who also introduced Representative-elect Leon Thurman of Anson and Representative-elect Max Carriker of Roby.

Master-of-ceremonies for the joint meeting of the civic clubs was John V. Howard Jr., Rotary Club president.

B. V. Newberry, acting Lions Club president, introduced visiting Lions and Rotarians.

West Texas Utilities To Help Build Nuclear Power Plant Project

West Texas Utilities Company serving Hamlin and Central West Texas, along with more than 50 other private utility companies has offered to build a multi-million dollar nuclear power plant as a research project.

The offer was made to the Atomic Energy Commission in Washington, D. C.

Cal Young, WTU president, said WTU will participate through the Central and Southwest system in an effort to provide a major short cut to the nation's goal of economic electricity from atomic energy.

DAY'S WORK OF ESTEEM for a recently deceased fellow employee was given last Thursday (Thanksgiving Day) by nearly 100 employees of the Celotex Corporation plant at Hamlin. The men spent most of the holiday building the foundation for a home for Mrs. W. H. Hallmark Jr., whose husband died three weeks ago of a heart attack. The house was to be moved this week to the foundation in Southwest Hamlin from the Celotex Village. Part of the workmen on the all-day job are shown above as they took a coffee break in the brisk fall weather. Scores of others were working on the foundation at the time.

EVANGELIST for a series of services beginning next Tuesday evening at the Church of the Nazarene will be Rev. J. A. Allen (above), itinerant evangelist for the church. Services will be at 7:30 each evening, and will continue through Sunday, December 14, according to Rev. R. T. Jarrell, pastor.

Rev. Allen has held pastorates in Kansas, Indiana and Iowa. He recently resigned a pastorate in Kansas City, Kansas, to enter the full-time evangelistic work.

Cotton Growers To Vote Dec. 15 On Referendum

A change in the trend of thinking by farmers of the Hamlin territory and elsewhere over the Cotton Belt is expected to be reflected in the forthcoming ballot on the cotton marketing quota referendum.

How farmers vote in the cotton marketing quota referendum, to be held throughout the nation's cotton growing area on December 15 will determine whether quota penalties will apply, the kind of allotment program in effect, and also the level of price support for 1959 crop cotton. The referendum therefore is of vital concern to every cotton grower, says Searcy M. Ferguson, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The marketing quota program will be in operation for next year's crop, the chairman explains, if at least two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of the program. In that case, farm operators will have an opportunity to elect a choice between (A) complying with their "regular" farm allotments—with price support available at not less than 80 per cent of parity for the 1959 crop of upland cotton; or (B) complying with an increased farm allotment 40 per cent larger than the "regular" farm allotment—with support at a level 15 per cent of parity lower than under the first choice; quota penalties will apply to any cotton produced in excess of the chosen allotment.

If more than one-third of the votes are against quotas, there would be no quota penalties, only the "regular" allotments would be available, and the price support level to eligible growers would drop to 50 per cent of parity.

All farmers who were engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1958 will be eligible to vote

Woman's Forum Is Sponsoring Lighting

The Hamlin Woman's Forum will sponsor the Christmas decoration of Hamlin homes, it was announced this week by officials of the club.

Prizes will be offered for the best decorated homes for the holiday season. Complete details of the project will be carried in next week's issue of The Herald.

Theft of Tires Tuesday Night Also Reported

No definite leads had been uncovered Wednesday afternoon in the four burglaries that had been perpetrated in Hamlin on Sunday and Tuesday nights, according to Chief of Police E. B. (Buddy) Watson. Investigations were continuing.

Crow Brothers Grocery store was burglarized Sunday night sometime, and $80 in cash and an undetermined amount of merchandise was taken, according to Everett Crow, one of the owners. Included in the merchandise taken were cigarettes, some shotgun and 22-rifle shells and probably some foods, which are difficult to check, the store owners explain.

The burglary was discovered early Monday morning by Everett Crow when he opened the store. Watson was called, and later in the day Jones County Sheriff Dave Reeves joined in the investigation. No fingerprints or other clues could be found, as the burglar or burglars used rubber gloves taken in the store.

The Crows and officers theorized that the burglars hid in the store shortly before it was closed Sunday afternoon, since no evidence of forceful entry was found. The iron bar on the back door apparently was removed from the inside and exit was made through the rear door.

Both the cash registers at the checking stands in the front of the store were rifled and the cash, mostly silver, was taken from them.

Tuesday night cars wheels and tires were taken from vehicles at three business places.

Four tires and wheels were taken from an implement trailer at Teague Implement Company. Two wheels and tires were taken from a car on the used car lot at Carl Murrell Chevrolet Company, and a wheel and tire were removed from a car parked at Home Helms garage.

No trace of the perpetrators of the tire and wheel burglaries have been found by investigating officers.

Two-County Singing Set Sunday in Hamlin

Singers and song lovers of the area are reminded of the regular Fisher and Jones County singing that will be held Sunday, December 7, at the Foursquare Gospel Church in Hamlin.

The church is located at the corner of Southwest Avenue D and First Street. Singing will get underway at 2:00 p. m., and the public is invited, say promoters of the singing.

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson of Aspermont was born November 23. Patricia Ann was the name assigned the little baby who tipped the scales at five pounds 12 ounces.

A boy arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morton of Roby on November 23. Balancing the scales at seven pounds seven ounces, the youngster was labeled Rico Wayne.

A girl, who has been named Irene, arrived for Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Munoz. She was weighed at five pounds eight ounces.

BOOKS REMAIN BEST SOURCE OF KNOWLEDGE

Books from early times have been the source of really thorough knowledge, and this is still true today. And despite the craze of television—and the soap operas which fill the viewers' TV day—books are today still the safest, surest way to knowledge.

A survey not too long ago showed that people in various sections of the country spend a varying degree of their time reading books. The people of the South, for example, spent less of their time reading books than did the people of any other section.

Some attribute this to the warmer climate and the tendency of people to get outdoors in the milder climate and "do" more than read. But whatever the reasons, and regardless of the compensations, the South suffers when its citizens do not read books, as does any other section of a country, or any people.

Another depressing thought for the intellectual is the type of book most people read. It should not surprise anyone, for it is the same type of thing that the average movie-goer pays to see. It is something heavily smeared with sex, evil or scandal.

All of us should read more good books. It would be a good habit to form the routine of reading one good book a month, or a week—or however often your daily life allows. In a short time, the reading of these interesting, educational and fascinating books will pay great dividends.

Living Social Success

All of us talk a lot about "justice," and more often than not we fail to think about social justice. When it comes to the courts, governmental regulation, etc., we have a pretty keen sense of what we think justice is—or should be.

In our society, especially among many of the fairer sex, social justice is often only a theoretical thing. Family tradition, while fine in its way, should not disenfranchise anyone who happens to be forced to stand on his or her own merits—with no family connection to fall back on.

Serocities and fratilities at so many of our colleges are often guilty of forgetting the real meaning of social justice.

Perhaps one of life's greatest temptations is the temptation to be envious or jealous of others—especially if they gain more success, real or apparent—than you do. All of us at times realize this frustrating sensation.

Often it causes us, if we are in a position to inflict a "counter blow" socially, to attempt to pull the object of our envy down to our own level. And this, whether it be through mobbing, gossip or other mischief, inevitably harms the doer, not the receiver. For social justice, like other forms of justice, is a great Christian concept, like political democracy.

More of us who believe in it in theory should practice it in our daily lives.

Leave School Fund Alone

A strong stand against tampering with the permanent school fund was taken by the Texas State Board of Education in a resolution adopted last month. The board may enlarge on its stand at a later meeting, in keeping with the July declaration.

The resolution recommends as follows, but to no one in particular:

"That the permanent school fund be maintained inviolate, based upon the fundamental endowment concept under which it was established and has since been maintained, to the end that present and future generations may have the benefit of the income therefrom in meeting the financial needs of the public schools of Texas."

The resolution requested: (1) That no attempt be made to place a maximum limit on the size of the fund; (2) that no part of the principal be diverted or in any manner expended; and (3) that the fund continued to be administered as a trust fund and invested in a manner consistent with safe and sound investment practices.

The board pointed out that Texas' traditional wealth of minerals, oil and gas would be depleted eventually and that this should be taken into consideration.

The extent to which a person can be trusted usually is in inverse ratio to the bragging he does about himself.

Fanciticism consists in redoubling your effort when you have forgotten your aim.—George Santayana

Money Can't Buy All

The late George Horace Lorimer, for many years editor of The Saturday Evening Post, once wrote these words: "It is a good thing to have money, and the things that money can buy, but it is good, too, to check up once in awhile and make sure we haven't lost the things that money can't buy."

The things that money cannot buy would make a long list. Here are some of them: Money cannot buy real friendship; friendship must be earned. Money cannot buy a clear conscience; square dealing is the price tag. Money cannot buy the glow of good health; right living is the secret. Money cannot buy happiness; happiness is a mental attitude and one may be as happy in a cottage as in a mansion.

Money cannot buy sunsets, singing birds, and the music of the wind in the trees; these are as free as the air we breathe. Money cannot buy inward peace; peace is the result of a constructive philosophy of life. Money cannot buy character.

Continue the list yourself. You will agree that among the things money cannot buy are some of the most valuable treasures life has to offer.

Checking the Facts

There's a story floating around about an election campaign in a backwoods area. It tells of a political meeting at which two candidates spoke lengthily on the subject of local taxes. One wanted to lower them. The other favored raising them.

When the third candidate arose to speak, he shifted his plug of tobacco from one side of his mouth to the other. "Folks," he drawled, "you jist go ahead and elect me. When I git on the job I kin tell better what to do. If taxes are too high, I'll lower 'em; if they're too low, I'll raise 'em."

Now, there is a man to admire—won't make a decision before he knows the facts!

And so it is with all of us in our every-day lives . . . or, so it should be. You can't tell which way to go until you learn what the situation is.

The Frustration Absurdity

It is a mistake to attribute all criminal instincts to frustration over social or economic status, but it is becoming quite a habit with social workers to explain the criminal acts of individuals upon the thesis that all crime originates from some inequality in the social order.

This obviously leads us to the conclusion, if some socialists are correct, that the way to abolish crime is to give everybody what they want. Make everybody equal, in social, political and economic status.

This is an absurd thesis. There are criminals in all levels of human society. Excepting certain instances of stealing, connected with the potential status of under-privileged, the bulk of the criminals acts in this country are committed by those who are unwilling to accept the discipline of an orderly society, and reluctant to work for what they get.

RECALLING Other Years

★ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper, The Herald.

THIRTY YEARS AGO

In checking over our early day files of The Hamlin Herald we find the following items of interest taken from the issue dated December 7, 1928:

A big crowd of community folks attended a box supper sale at the Davis school house Saturday night. More than $175 was netted from the sale, proceeds to be used for purchasing playground equipment for the school, five miles east of Hamlin.

Ladies' Night for Lions Club Reset During January

Semi-annual ladies' night of the Hamlin Lions Club, which had been set several months ago for next Tuesday evening, has been postponed until some time in January, it was announced at the Tuesday noon luncheon of the civic club at the oil mill guest house. Acting President B. V. Newberry said that so many conflicts made the change feasible.

Program for the day was provided by J. D. Barnes, Hamlin theater manager, who recently returned from a three-week trip through the Southwest to California. He showed colored slides and told of visits to Carlsbad Caverns, Arizona, Nevada, and to Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm and various movie sites in California.

A display of mounted trophies of Preachers, Austin Siburt, Calvin Bailey and Ed Robb and Publisher-Rancher Willard Jones was erected in the meeting hall to prove their hunting abilities on a recent trip to the Jones ranch. Varying opinions about the hunt seemed to remain in the minds of Doubting Thomases, declared the Lions Club president.

official allotment notice to the county ASC office so that it can be sent to the person who will operate the farm next year. Cotton allotments are established for specific farms and may not be transferred by the operator or other producer from one farm to another.

Any changes in the land to be included in the farm for which the allotment is made should be reported to the county ASC committee. Farm operators likewise are asked to check with the county ASC office regarding any other question about the farm on which the allotment is established.

Ferguson also reminds cotton growers that all should vote in the December 15 marketing quota referendum. Polling places will be announced in each county very soon, he said.

Carol Hennington Becomes Bride of Robert Carlisle in McCaulley Rituals

Carol Marie Hennington and Robert Newport Carlisle repeated wedding vows in a double ring ceremony last Thursday evening at the McCaulley Baptist Church. Officiating for the rites was Rev. Gary V. Brock, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Hennington of McCaulley. Rev. and Mrs. Robert Lee Carlisle of Montevideo, Uruguay, are parents of the bridegroom.

Petty Carlisle, sister of the bridegroom, was maid-of-honor and best man was David Hennington.

Reception in Rector Home Given After McCaulley Wedding

Immediately following the Hennington-Carlisle wedding Thursday evening at McCaulley, a reception for attendants was held in the home of Mrs. Alice Rector. Members of the house party included the bride's parents, Miss Carlisle, Ruby Hennington, Mrs. A. M. Marton, Mrs. O. T. Hennington and Mrs. David Hennington of Sweetwater, and Mrs. Billy Henderson, Mrs. Harold Edwards, Fayne Downey and Jane Decker.

The bride's chosen colors of ivory and white were used, and the table was laid with an Irish linen cloth of lace. Appointments were of crystal and silver.

For traveling the bride wore a dress of sapphire blue in a semi-chemise design with harmonizing accessories. Her corsage was from her bouquet. They took a brief honeymoon trip.

The newlyweds are at home at 2737 1/2 Pine Street in Abilene where both are junior students at Hardin Simmons University.

ton of Sweetwater, brother of the bride. Gordon Ivey of Clyde and Leroy Morgan of Wichita Falls were ushers. Candle-lighter was Mrs. Janice Farmer, who also sang the traditional wedding songs.

Baskets of white gladiolus, blue tapers in base candelabra and palms provided the setting for the rituals in the church.

Traditional music was presented by Mrs. Ed Harris, organist, of Rotan, who also accompanied Mrs. Farmer, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a princess style gown of white satin with empire waist and long sleeves of lace. The low neckline was caloped. The same lace formed a deep drap at the hemline. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a lace wedding headdress. She carried a bouquet of white gladiolus with blue and white pom-pom mums in shower arrangement.

Gown of the maid-of-honor was of ice blue taffeta, designed like that worn by the bride. She carried a small cascaded arrangement of white carnations and blue pom-pom mums.

TIME MARCHES ON.

The woman was filling out a blank form in order to open a checking account. When she came to the space labeled "age" she hesitated.

The clerk waited patiently, then leaned over and whispered, "The longer you wait the worse it gets."

ATHLETIC PROWESS.

"My husband plays tennis, swims and goes in for physical exercises. Does your husband take any regular exercise?"

"Well, last week he went out seven nights running."

Student from Hamlin Takes Part in Teacher Training Programs

Public schools in 30 Texas cities are cooperating with North Texas State College at Denton this year in the training of prospective teachers.

The school of education has placed 473 college students in these cities as student teachers. Most of them are assigned to schools in Denton, Dallas and Tarrant Counties.

In 21 towns outside of Denton County the student teachers spend full time in the school for nine weeks. In most Denton County schools they teach a one-half day schedule for a full semester.

Under the guidance of the classroom teacher the students assist in planning and carrying out the regular instruction program as part of their work toward earning teaching certificates.

Among those enrolled in the program is Peggy Briscoe Hallmark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. Briscoe of Hamlin. She is teaching business at the Carrollton High School.

Pioneer Area Rancher, W. L. Walton, Spends Thanksgiving Telling Yarns

W. L. Walton, one of the most loved and honored former citizens of Hamlin, has spent the Thanksgiving holidays in the home of his son, Wallace V. Walton.

Mr. Walton is truly a pioneer of West Texas. He was prominent in the ranching business in the early days. He has had extensive holdings in both Jones and Stonewall Counties, and was active in farming and ranching until a few years ago, when he retired, and is now making his home at Lubbock.

He was born at Blue Springs, Missouri on January 1, 1869, and moved with his family in a covered wagon to this section of Texas in 1885. The family settled on a section that is directly north of the Katy Railway in North Hamlin.

W. L. WALTON

His stories of the Old West never fail to fascinate those who hear them. He worked on the once famous Hitson Ranch, known as "Old Hit." The ranch was located in the present Hitson community, west of Hamlin. At that time it took several days to make a round trip to Abilene for lumber and supplies. They received mail only once each week.

Later, after Hamlin was put on the map in 1905, Mr. Walton moved into town and built a modern home near the present Elementary School so that his children might have the opportunities of a good school. He has always been interested in the advancement of the community.

In 1907 he became part owner of the telephone line from Sagerton to Sweetwater by way of Hamlin, and did most of the work of building the line, using wagons and teams. The present telephone route is the same. He later sold his interest to Judge Shannon, an early day lawyer in Hamlin.

R. B. Bryant Speaks At Layman's Service At Faith Methodist

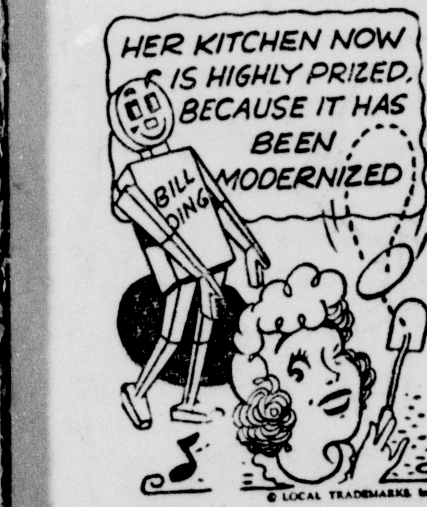

R. B. Bryant of Stamford filled the pulpit at the Faith Methodist Church Sunday as the church observed Laymen's Day. His topic was "Seek ye first the kingdom of God."

Among other things the speaker said: "Fear is man's trouble; he's always afraid he can't do. Always call on God to lead in every effort. Go out and present Christ as laymen should. Make a commitment to God and rejoice because you have been blessed by Him."

"Putting first things first, you'll have the spirit of Christ. The quality of your life means more than a sermon."

"Dr. George W. Truett in 1917 delivered an inspirational address and said, 'There is something good about everybody if you know them well enough.' We are too critical; we must never gossip. What is the biggest sin? Saying untrue things about your neighbor."

"If you are old and have only a few years left, God can still use you. An humble person, a good old grandmother, can pray for her sons and grandsons."

Campaign plans for the annual drive for funds, scheduled in February, were made at the meeting.

More Than $100,000 Raised for Gonzales

Money raised during the emergency campaign for the Texas Rehabilitation Center of the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation now totals $115,823, according to an official statement released to The Herald this week.

Walter Richter, executive director of the foundation, said, "The emergency drive has been moderately successful and enabled us to keep our doors open. We have been able to meet payrolls, pay operating expenses and continue to offer our services to physically disabled Texans."

Freight Carloadings For Santa Fe Still Up

Students Studying Income Tax May Be Able to Save on Bill

During the past few weeks thousands of boys and girls again took up the battle with books here in Texas. So many learned men have come up with so many good ideas about what the boys and girls should learn in this era of space travel and rock 'n' roll and Sputniks that it is sort of dangerous to even mention the word education.

However, it's pretty safe to predict that the thousands of high school and college students who study the income tax course will get a chance to use what they have learned. The sputniks may keep on rockin' n' rollin' or they may get sacked, but unfortunately, not only this generation but the next one will be working on this tax business, observes Tax Man Sam.

Maybe Junior can learn enough to prepare correct tax returns and pay no more than his proper tax.

WRONG SIGN.

Smith—"Your wife used to be so nervous. Now she seems quite cured."

Brown—"Yes, and it was all so easy. The doctor told her it was a sign of old age."

CAME SO SUDDEN.

Bride-to-be (to friend)—"It was Christmas before I realized that Tom was getting serious. He gave me an electric blanket with dual controls."

If you never learn to stop kicking yourself in the pants for your daily mistakes life will come harder and harder.

Eight Schools Enter Teams In Hamlin Cage Tournament

Stamford Blasts Cisco 46 to 14 to Hit Quarter-Final

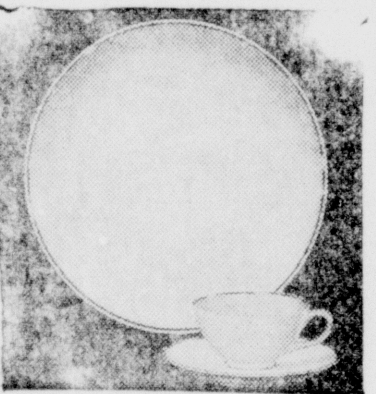

Stamford High School's Bulldog football team, winner of the District 6-AA championship, continued their winning ways Saturday afternoon at Abilene by beating the Cisco Lobos 46 to 14 to reach the state Class AA quarter-finals.

After playing on even terms for the first quarter, the Bulldogs got away two touchdowns in the second period to start things off in fine style. Long touchdown runs were the order of the day as Stamford snapped Cisco's victory string at 11 straight.

Stamford made 20 first downs to 12 for the Lobos, and rolled up 294 yards rushing to 179 for the Cisco crew. Cisco made 30 yards on three passes out of 10 tosses, and the Bulldogs connected with two of five aerials for a like 31 yards.

FIRST THINGS FIRST.

A ninth grader "floored" the telephone folks recently with this portion of an essay entered in a contest. The youngster wrote: "The telephone is very necessary in cases of emergency. For example, if your house is on fire, you can use the telephone to call the insurance company."

Junior High Cagers Won Two, Lost One Game Against Rotan

Tuesday night of last week the Junior High School cagers won two games and lost one in play with the basketballers from Rotan in tilts played on the Rotan court.

The eighth grade Hamlin girls trimmed the sissies from Rotan by a 24 to 4 count.

In the final game the eighth grade boys from Hamlin edged out the Rotan crew by a 14 to 12 score after playing an overtime session. The score was 12 to 12 at the end of the game.

Hawley Cagers Win Two Tilts from Hamlin

Hamlin High School cagers went to Hawley last Tuesday night for three encounters. The A strings of boys and girls both lost their tilts, but the B basketballers finally eked out a win after two overtimes.

The Hawley boys trimmed the A squad 67 to 32 with Jim Wornack dropping 36 points through the hoop for Hawley. Charles Robinson scored 12 points for Hamlin.

Judy Beasley made 28 points for the Hawley girls as they took the game 45 to 35. Kay Millhorn sank 17 points for the Piperettes.

In the B game the Pied Pipers took the long end of a 44 to 43 score after two overtimes.

Stamford Meets Spur In AA Quarter-Finals

Stamford High School Bulldogs, District 6-AA champions, will play the Spur Bulldogs Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the Texas Class AA quarter-finals.

Roland Kelley, president of the Stamford Chamber of Commerce flipped the coin and Superintendent Bob Nunley of Spur called it wrong in locating the site of the game.

Stamford defeated Cisco 46 to 14 last Saturday, and Spur defeated Abilene 32 to 8 to gain the quarter-finals.

Several Hamlin grid fans are expected to see the Friday game.

Play Begins This Afternoon, Runs Thru Saturday

Eight schools of the area have entered high school boys' and girls' teams in the Hamlin High School invitation basketball tournament scheduled Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the new HHS gymnasium. It is announced this week by Coach Neil Laminack who completed the pairings of teams first of the week.

This is the first high school basketball tournament to be conducted at Hamlin for several years, points out Laminack, as he urges good attendance from the Hamlin fans at the tourney.

Play will get underway Thursday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock, and finals will be Saturday evening.

Trophies will be presented to the winning boys' and girls' teams, and individual trophies will be given to the boys and girls selected for the all-tournament teams.

Pairings in the two brackets of play, as announced by Laminack first of the week, follow:

Boys' Division—Roby vs. Hamlin at 3:30 Thursday; Aspermont vs. Rotan at 6:00; Avoca vs. Albany at 6:45 Friday; Jayton vs. Haskell at 8:00 p. m.; winner of Hamlin-Roby tilt vs. Aspermont-Rotan winner at 9:00 a. m. Saturday; and winner of Avoca-Albany vs. winner of Jayton-Haskell at 10:15 a. m. Saturday; consolation of Aspermont-Albany and Jayton-Haskell losers at 11:00 a. m. Saturday; consolation of Hamlin-Roby and Aspermont-Rotan games at 12:45 p. m. Saturday; finals at 6:00 p. m. Saturday.

Friday; consolation of Roby-Hamlin and Aspermont-Rotan at 9:15 p. m. Friday; finals at 4:30 p. m. Saturday; consolation finals at 7:30 p. m. Saturday.

Stamford Dominates All-District 6-AA Team as Hamlin Places One on Squad

Stamford's rampaging Bulldog football team landed three backfield berths and placed one man at each position in the line to practically dominate the District 6-AA all-district mythical team picked by coaches of the five member schools in tabulations made last week-end at Hamlin.

The district champion Bulldogs

placed seven men on the first team and three on the second. Haskell landed four spots on the first team, Anson and Hamlin got one each, and Seymour failed to put a man on the mythical group but had two on the second team.

Thirteen players were selected on the first team due to ties at end and guard. Eight of the players are seniors and five are juniors. No sophomores were selected on either team.

The first and second teams as picked by the coaches follow:

First Team—John Rike of Haskell, Ronnie Weeks of Stamford and Delbert Wilson of Anson, ends; Jimmy Payne of Stamford and Tom Cathey of Haskell, tackles; Bobby Gambin of Stamford, Bob Martin of Hamlin and Gary Anthony of Haskell, guards; Wendell Robinson of Stamford, center; Donald Davis of Stamford, Charlie Hunter of Stamford, Fred Upshaw of Stamford and Tom Anderson of Haskell, backs.

Second Team—Duane Lindsey of Stamford and Jerry Underwood of Seymour, ends; Roy Williams of Hamlin and Larry Dippel of Stamford, tackles; Joe Holloway of Anson and Steve Carmichael of Hamlin, guards; Larry Cooper of Haskell, center; Ken Prewitt of Hamlin, Joe Chandler of Seymour, Tab Bunkley of Stamford and Eugene Mullins of Haskell, backs.

Junior High Cagers Play Rotan Monday

Next Monday night the Junior High School's basketball crews will host the cagers from Rotan at the local gymnasium.

Beginning at 6:00 o'clock the seventh grade boys will play. At 7:00 o'clock the eighth grade girls will take the courts, and at 8:00 o'clock the eighth grade boys will tangle with the Rotan eighth graders.

Junior High Girls Win, Boys Lose to Avoca

Eighth grade boys' and girls' basketball teams from Hamlin Junior High School went to Avoca Monday night for two basketball games.

The girls won their game by a 26 to 23 score, but the boys were snowed under a barrage of goals by a 31 to 4 count.

High point scorer for the girls of Hamlin was Arlene Waldon, who bucketed eight points. Sandra Jayroe made seven points, and Billy Blankinship and Lagena Weaver each tallied five points.

In the boys' tilt, it started off like a real match. Score at the end of the first quarter was 2 to 2, and at half-time was 6 to 2. Then the Avoca crew hit their stride as the Hamlin first string was pulled and rolled up the big score. Scoring for Hamlin were Mike Martin and Dan Newberry.

The show will be held this year at Stamford in the quarterhorse arena at the Texas Cowboy Round. Show date is January 10. An effort will be made this year to speed up judging in the county with two competitions being held at the same time. In previous years judging has drawn out all late in the afternoon. F. D. Tanksey of Texas A. & M.

College will judge beef cattle and wine. Max Stuart of Roby, a rancher, will judge dairy cattle and sheep. Marvin Weber of Power Feeds in Abilene will be the poultry judge. Showmanship judge will be announced after the show.

The show is financed through contributions of the Chambers of Commerce at Stamford and Anson and the Hamlin Board of Community Development. The show alternates among the three cities. Individual awards are given by civic clubs, farmers and ranchers and business men.

Among changes in this year's show are the following: All dry lot milk fed calves will show in the same class. There will be no distinction in classes of milk fed or dry lot steers.

A new class of "commercial steers" has been set up. These will be separate and apart from the other classes of calves. Calves must have been purchased between August 10 and October 1, 1958. These steers will be graded by Jim Warden of Swift & Company.

In the pen of three fat hogs only one gilt may be exhibited.

Jones County Has Purchased 91% of Year's Bond Quota

During the month of October the citizens of Jones County purchased $49,532 in Series E and H savings bonds. This announcement was made recently by A. C. Humphrey of Stamford, chairman of Jones County savings bonds committee.

"Sales for the first 10 months of this year totaled $434,373," Chairman Humphrey reported. "We have now achieved 91.3 per cent of our 1958 goal of $476,000."

Sales in Texas during the first 10 months of 1958 were $146,136, 258 which represents 83.5 per cent of the 1958 goal of $175,000,000.

"Under a recent change in treasury regulations, individuals who hold F and G bonds that mature after September 1, 1958, may invest the proceeds from the maturing bonds in E and H bonds without regard to annual purchase limits," Humphrey announced. "This information should be of interest to hundreds of people in this area who hold maturing F and G bonds," Humphrey concluded.

Sales by counties of the nine-county District 16 for the year and the percentage of the goal for the year follow:

County	Purchases for Yr.	% of Goal
Callahan	$206,790	98.9
Eastland	625,628	123.4
Fisher	51,655	47.8

Football Banquet For Pied Pipers Is Elaborate Affair

Slacks, jeans and gingham vanished before the magic wand of pinks and taffetas, nets and white coats and black ties appeared on the scene when the annual football banquet for boys and coaches of the Hamlin High School Pied Pipers were honored by the girls of the Pep Squad at the Hamlin Elementary School cafeteria on Friday evening.

About 7:15 o'clock beautiful girls and handsome boys entered the banquet room, which was appropriately and attractively decorated. The theme of attraction was a picture of the traditional school colors of green and white at the head table. Miniature football players furnished the other decorations.

Main speaker of the evening was Austin Siburt, minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ. The theme of his talk was good sportsmanship, not only in the game of football but also in the game of life.

During the banquet the Pep Squad presented their Football Hero for this year, Roy Glen Williams, a trophy. The Piper foot-

Two FFA Leadership Teams Win Honors At District Contests

FOREVER YOUNG.

If you want a youthful figure, Take advice from this old sage: You don't have to diet or exercise. Just ask a woman her age.

It is usually hard to buck the majority, but it often pays in the long run, especially when the majority is wrong.

The ball team also announced their Sweetheart, Betty Maberry, and presented her a trophy.

Continued Cooperation in Campaign For Early Mailing Urged by Sparks

Postmaster Perry Sparks is pleased with the prompt response to his recently announced "mail early for Christmas" campaign. He said this week, "The biggest single factor in getting all mail delivered before Christmas is the full cooperation of the public in early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts. Post office facilities have been expanded, personnel will be available, and everything is geared up to handle a record Christmas mail in Hamlin this year."

With Christmas only a month away, the postmaster says it's not a bit too soon to start following these simple rules to insure delivery of your gifts before Christmas: Wrap them securely, address them correctly and mail them early.

The postmaster said you should not take chances on mailing poorly wrapped packages. Use corrugated mailing cartons, plenty of heavy brown wrapping paper, and be sure that every package is tied with strong cord. Cartons containing several gift packages should be stuffed with tissue or old newspapers to cushion the contents.

The postmaster also reminds us that size and weight limitations for parcel post packages vary according to place of mailing and destination. He suggests that you secure Pamphlet No. 2 at the post office, which tells all about packaging and wrapping parcels. Always include an extra label with your return address and the recipient's address inside the carton or package before it is wrapped.

"Careful addressing of your Christmas cards is equally important," the postmaster said. Bring your Christmas card mailing list up-to-date and be certain that you have the complete name, address, zone number, city and state for everyone on your list.

Always send your Christmas cards by first class mail. They will be processed and delivered quicker and they'll be returned or forwarded if necessary. Christmas cards sent by first class mail may carry written messages; whereas, cards sent with third class three-cent postage may only have a written signature.
